Consulate General of the Argentine Republic.

23rd Oct 1863

My dear Excellency.

I have had the gratification
to receive your kind private note by the French Steamer of the 11th of Sept.

The pressure and disturbance in the money markets of London & Paris which had just commenced
at the departure of the last packet have rendered it inexpedient
to bring forward Mr.
Wheelwright's Railway
but the delay is not,

I think likely to be of long duration. All the parties to the undertaking entertain undiminished confidence in its success and all the requisite organization is completed so as to be ready for the first opportune moment.

His Excellency Señor Balcarce is now in London and I have had the pleasure of calling upon him to-day.

In Buenos Ayres Securities there have been no transactions during the past fortnight.

except in the Shares of the Bank which have advanced from 11 premium to 12 1/2 premium. Yesterday they touched 13 1/2.

By this opportunity
I send a newspaper
which contains a useful review of Major Richards' book.

Trusting to have the pleasure of writing
to you more fully by the next mail.

I am
My dear Excellency
Very truly Your Obedt
Servt.

W. B. Sarrysen.

To His Excellency Señor Don de Elizalde
